ROA BOARD ELECTION VOTE FOR KEVIN HART

The 2021 Board election for the Racehorse Owners Association is open and will close on 21 June .

I am supporting Kevin Hart to add another voice from the North to the ROA Board , alongside myself .

Kevin is from the North of England , but has lived in Edinburgh for a number of years . His biggest success on the track was winning the Ayr Gold Cup in 2015 with Don't Touch . He was employed as a Finance Director and Chief Executive of various companies in the Oil Exploration Sector but , more recently , has moved to Non Executive roles , giving him more time to indulge his passion for Racing . He is extremely well connected in racing circles and , while he has mostly had Flat Horses , he has owned Jumps Horses as well and has a thorough knowledge of both codes .

With his business acumen and racing knowledge , I believe Kevin would be a very good addition to the Board and support for the ROA Executive Team . It would be great for Scotland and the North to have another voice from our area around the ROA Board table so I would encourage you to vote for Kevin and encourage fellow ROA members you know to do the same .

As a ROA member , you should have received an email from CIVICA Election Services ( CES ) with your voting link . On that link you will find Kevin's manifesto with more background .
